A Brief History of the Weather Services of Cincinnati. W. C. Devereaux.

Resolutions

The Committee on Resolutions then reported through Mr. M. W. Hayes. The resolution regarding Scientific Congresses, Conventions and Meetings, adopted by the Washington Academy of Sciences was favorably reported upon. After reading it a motion was passed by the meeting favoring the sentiments expressed in this resolution, and the Secretary was directed thereby, to send communications to this effect to the several parties mentioned in the resolution.

Another resolution proposed by the committee and adopted was as follows:

Whereas: The University of Cincinnati, the local Committee of Arrangements, the Chamber of Commerce, the officers of the Union Central Life Insurance Company, and Mr. W. C. Devereaux, of the local office of the Weather Bureau have made most satisfactory arrangements for the convenience, comfort and entertainment of the American Meteorological Society and have thereby made possible a most successful meeting,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Secretary be instructed to write letters to each of the aforementioned, expressing appreciation for their untiring efforts in behalf of the Society.
